

Other Adults in the House Policy

There are other adults in the house:

Thomas Marshall (Husband)

All adults in the house have undergone Criminal Record Bureau Checks and received clearances. They are all very supportive of my chosen career as a Childminder and assist me in any way they can. If they are at home when I am minding they all interact well with the children and are good role models.

I encourage them to join in with the activities and the children respond well to them.

Although they have been thoroughly checked to be suitable to be near young children, I would like to reassure you that at no time is anyone, other than myself allowed to help the children with their intimate care, i.e. nappy changing and toileting. This is to protect your child and to protect my family from any possible allegations of abuse.

Physical Contact Policy

As an Ofsted registered Childminder I am very aware that each child has differing needs. Some children like to be affectionate and show it through hugs, kisses etc others are not so tactile. I am happy to hug, kiss (head or cheek) hold hands, cuddle, tickle etc your child providing both you and your child is happy with this. I would never force a child to do any of the above if it made them feel uncomfortable.

I will restrain a child only if they are at risk of inflicting harm on themselves or others. I will separate children if they are fighting. I will restrain a child if they try and run into the road etc. If I do need to restrain your child I will document it in my incident book and asked you to sign the record. This is to protect all parties.

I will also need to have some physical contact with your child in order to ensure hygiene routines are carried out. For example, the washing of hands, faces and the wiping of noses. I am happy to assist with toileting according to the age and stage of ability of the child and to change nappies if required. If necessary I will change a child's clothes if they have had an accident.

If you have any concerns or wish to discuss the matter further please do not hesitate to let me know.
